NOTICE TO ALL STUDENTS

The University regrettably notes the network challenges faced with our banking system that hindered some students from paying fees on time. We wish to assure the students that the challenges have been sorted out and the banking system is up and fully operational. To this end, the University Management has approved the extension of online course registration, which shall be open from today until 19th March, 2023.

Students who have not cleared their semester fees are further reminded to do so NOT later than 24th March, 2023. All students:

- i. Shall print their examination cards from their respective portals.
- ii. Those students who shall not have complied by the indicated dates are advised to defer their studies and or examinations as may be applicable.
